What will I know by the end of the unit?

Lesson 1 – What time words do we know?

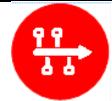

Here, now, then, yesterday, last week, last year, years ago and a long time ago, can be used to describe the passing of time.

Lesson 2 – What is an artefact?

An artefact is a man-made object that can tell us about history.

Lesson 3 – What are the stages of life?

People grow from being babies to toddlers, then children, adolescents, adults and elderly people.

Lesson 4 – What is a family tree?

A family tree is a diagram that shows the relationship between people in several generations of a family.

Lesson 5 – How do we use a timeline?

Sequencing words, such as first, next, finally, then and after that, can be used to order information chronologically.

Lesson 6 – What important events have happened in my life and when did they happen?

Important life events include occasions such as birthdays, religious or family celebrations and personal achievements.

Where will my learning go next?
